The advancement of the whole town is the important thing—not merely to advertise individuals.

An honest man may be gruff and plain spoken, but you always know where to find him.—Albuquerque Citizen.

Kansas City, Mo., will vote on the question of adopting the commission or business form of government June second.

A boy always brags of what he will do when he's a man. And when he becomes a man, he always boasts of what he did when he was a boy.—Pick-Me-Up.

As between individuals the Record is absolutely disinterested. People who attempt to meddle with our private business, however, need expect no special favors.

not appear to be under the Hearst management. It favors ultimate prohibition, and says: "Until the final abolition of the whiskey traffic in this territory, we demand for the protection of our people, that this traffic be regulated. First of all we demand that such ordinances be passed as will destroy all secrecy in its consumption. That the bar tender, the purchaser, consumer and all habitués of the saloon be subject to public view from the sidewalk; that no place where liquors are sold, be allowed to remain open for business from eleven o'clock at night until seven o'clock the following day."

GOVERNOR FOLK'S IMPROPRIETY

It is charged that Governor Folk transcended the bounds of courtesy when, at the governors' conference, he declared a good way to protect our forests was to repeal the duty on lumber. The criticism of Governor Folk is based on the idea that politics was to be tabooed in the conference. But where is the politics in merely saying the duty on lumber should be removed? Why, nearly everybody is in favor of that. It is certainly no party question, for no party would dare say specifically that it favored the retention of the duty on lumber.

In discussing the question how to preserve our forests, the suggestion to take off the tariff that encourages their destruction is very pertinent. Putting an impost duty on lumber means the protection of trees in other lands and the chopping down of our own. It is a good thing to suggest this. It is as pertinent as the reservation of vast areas of mountain forests.

If the governor has been guilty of a little impropriety, it will prove of service, for it will call the attention of the people to an impost that is not only destroying our forests, but is increasing the cost of every home a man builds. We hear much of the question, is a tariff a tax? That doesn't apply to the tariff on lumber, for it is an outrage.—Ohio State Journal.

WHAT IS LIFE TO YOU?

(From The Pathfinder.)

To the preacher life's a sermon,
To the joker it's a jest;
To the miser life is money,
To the loafer life is rest.
To the lawyer life's a trial,
To the poet life's a song;
To the doctor life's a patient
That needs treatment right along.
To the soldier life's a battle,
To the teacher life's a school;
Life's a good thing to the grafter,
It's a failure to the fool.
To the man upon the engine
Life's a long and heavy grade;
It's a gamble to the gambler,
To the merchant life's a trade.

Life's a picture to the artist,
To the rascal life's a fraud;
Life perhaps is but a burden
To the man beneath the hod.

Life is lovely to the lover,
To the player life's a play;
Life may be a load of trouble
To the man upon the dray.

Life is but a long vacation
To the man who loves his work;
Life's an everlasting effort
To shun duty to the shirk.

To the heaven's blest romancer
Life's a story ever new;
Life is what we try to make it—
Brother, what is life to you?

Real manners, the manners of a truly educated man or woman, are an outward expression of intellectual and moral conviction. Sham manners are a veneer which falls away at the first selfish suggestion.—President Butler, of Columbia University.

Governor Curry is to make an official visit to Arizona in the interest of the National Irrigation congress at Albuquerque. The governor has done wonders in untiring New Mexico but he has no designs on Arizona—only a friendly call.—El Paso Herald.

So far there are three candidates for the membership from New Mexico of the Democratic national committee. They are John W. Poe, of Roswell; Harvey B. Fergusson, of Albuquerque, and A. A. Jones, of Las Vegas. As southeastern New Mexico has here tofore rolled up great Democratic majorities and has been the backbone of the territorial Democracy, it does seem as if the claims of the Democrats there should be recognized and as if Mr. Poe should be selected.—Santa Fe New Mexican.

The Sun, the new Democratic evening paper at Albuquerque had hardly come down to the New Mexico situation yet; but besides discussing general or national issues, it prints a platform of principles, from which we quote: "That the city of Albuquerque pay its taxes from some other source than from vice and crime." While the paper uses the Hearst telegraph service, and prints some of Brisbane's signed editorials, it does
